AUTHORITY AND REFERENCE

Penal Code Section 6035 and 6036 authorizes the BSCC to adopt and amend the proposed regulations, which would implement, interpret, or make specific Sections 6035 and 6036 of the Penal Code.

INFORMATIVE DIGEST/POLICY STATEMENT OVERVIEW

Summary of Existing Laws

Penal Code Sections 6035 and 6036 authorize the BSCC to establish minimum standards for local corrections and probation officers.

Summary of Existing Regulations

Existing standards which prescribe requirements for the selection and training of local corrections and probation officers are contained in Title 15 – Crime Prevention and Corrections, Division 1, Chapter 1, Subchapter 1 of the California Code of Regulations (CCR).

Summary of Effects

The proposed action would change the length of validation for a certified course from one year to two years in Section 233, Regular Certification and Revocation, of Title 15, Division 1, Chapter 1, Subchapter 1 CCR.

Comparable Federal Statute or Regulations

There are no comparable federal regulations or statutes.

Policy Statement Overview

The broad objective of the proposed action is to maintain selection and training regulations for local corrections and probation officers in conformance with sound correctional practices.

Proposed revision reflects current best practices in selection and training and are intended to enhance the professionalism of local corrections and probation officers throughout the state. Specific benefits include clear and detailed regulation that will provide local administrators with guidance to raise the level of competence of local corrections and probation officers. Proposed revisions will continue to provide improvements to local corrections systems, ultimately ensuring the public's health and safety.

During the process of developing these regulations and amendments, BSCC has conducted a search of any similar regulations on this topic and has concluded that these regulations are neither inconsistent nor incompatible with existing state regulations.

DISCLOSURES REGARDING THE PROPOSED ACTION

The BSCC has made the following initial determinations:

Mandate on local agencies and school districts: None.

Cost or savings to any state agency: None

Cost to any local agency or school district which must be reimbursed in accordance with Government Code Sections 17500 through 17630: None

Other nondiscretionary costs or savings imposed on local agencies: None

Costs or savings in federal funding to the state: None.

Significant effect on housing costs: None.

Significant, statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states: None.

RESULTS OF THE ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS/ASSESSMENT

The BSCC concludes that it is unlikely that adoption of this regulation revision will (1) create or eliminate jobs within California, (2) create new businesses, (3) eliminate existing businesses within California, or (3) affect the expansion of businesses currently doing business within California.

Benefits of the Proposed Action: These regulations will benefit the local corrections and probation, by providing clear guidance related to the staff competencies and appropriate selection and training standards. The proposed revision reflect current best practices intended to improve operations. Ensuring adherence to standardized course development and delivery along with selection standards will continue to benefit the health, safety and welfare of California's residents.

Cost impacts on a representative private person or businesses: The BSCC is not aware of any cost impacts that a representative private person or business would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

Business report: These regulations do not require a report to be made; they do not apply to businesses.

Small Business Determination: The BSCC has determined that the proposed regulations will have no effect on small businesses. These proposed regulations affect the selection and training of local corrections and probation officers.

CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVES

In accordance with Government Code Section 11346.5, subdivision (a)(13), the BSCC has determined that no reasonable alternative considered by the agency or that has otherwise been identified and brought to its attention would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed, would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed action, or would be more-cost effective to affected private persons and equally effective in implementing the statutory policy or other provision of law.

The BSCC invites interested parties to present statements or arguments with respect to alternatives to the proposed regulations at the scheduled hearings or during the written comment period.
